From the Pastor

MSGR. DAN DEUTSCH

Hi Parishioners,

It's been over three years since we updated the St. Pat's branding. After some time, it's always good to get a refresher on things, so this week I wanted to re-share the meaning behind our logo. The icon is a combination of components specific to the community of St. Patrick Parish. With the cross at its center, the icon reflects why we exist – to Make Jesus First.

Thank you for making St. Pat's all that it is!

Peace,
Msgr.

The fox represents our Fox River Valley community & reminds us who we're called to serve.

Mk 12:31

Fox

The water of eternal life that we find only in Jesus.

Jn 4:14

River

The Cross reminds us that Jesus is the center of all we do.

1 Cor 3:11

Cross

The arch represents our parish's downtown foundation, that what we do is for the benefit of all.

Mk 16:15

New Statue Coming to St. Pat's

ST. GIANNA BERETTA MOLLA

As a mother, wife, and pediatrician, St. Gianna Beretta Molla held an abiding love for life and deep respect for its sanctity, especially for the life of unborn babies. In the end, she sacrificed her own life for that of her unborn child. This statue is a reminder of that love and of the need for deeper respect for life.

We would like to welcome this statue to the St. Patrick Adoration Chapel soon. If you'd like to help make this possible, please consider donating with this statue in mind, by putting a note in the memo line. The statue would cost $7500, but donations of any size are welcome. We greatly appreciate your generosity!

We hope this statue will continue to foster a culture of life at our Parish and within each of our hearts.
