From the Pastor

Dear Parishioners,

This is the week! As we begin with Jesus triumphant coming into Jerusalem and the Temple, we end with his ignominy and the Paschal Mystery. How quickly we turn and sin. But that's why he came. He was sent and willing went to pay the price. "He paid a debt he did not owe because we owe a debt we cannot pay." So let us enter into this Holy Week with hearts that are humble, open and grateful.

Please join us for the Triduum. From Holy Thursday to Good Friday to Easter this is the Hour when the Son of Man is glorified and we are redeemed and saved. Nothing in our lives has meaning or possibility without Christ's Passion, Death and Resurrection.

Also, thank you to all who came to our St. Patrick Party and St. Joseph Table. Both events were beautiful and well attended. (200+ at each event) And thank you to all who organized and made these celebrations possible.

Peace,
Msgr.

Golf Outing | Register Now

Registration for our St. Pat's Golf Outing is officially open. This golf outing is the first, and it will hopefully become a longstanding tradition at the parish. Funding from this tournament will go toward St. Pat's Catholic School and renovations for the Parish. Please visit stpatrickparish.org/golf to get your tickets today or for information on sponsorships. Your ticket fee covers lunch, 18 holes of golf, and a Cocktail Hour with an open bar and heavy appetizers.

Please Welcome our Incoming RCIA Candidates!

MIKE MCGRAW

Having been baptized and raised in the Lutheran faith, I was active in my church, praising God through singing and playing the piano. I married my Catholic wife, Jill, in 1996, and we agreed to raise our children Catholic and attend church as a family. I have often considered RCIA, but professional and family demands made taking the time seem impossible. My two children are both very strong in their Catholic faith and have inspired me to want to officially join the Church. My son, Jack (who is also my sponsor) helped me to realize this past summer that this was the year to finally join RCIA. I have enjoyed learning more about the history of the Catholic Church and its teachings and getting to know other members of our parish community.

SAM MILLER

I was raised in the Mormon Church, but called myself an atheist starting at age 13. For 7 years, I was content being non-religious, but I began to be bothered that I couldn't reconcile certain moral beliefs while also not believing in God. It was not long after that that I came across just one quote from St. Thomas Aquinas that destroyed my atheist beliefs, and after some more discernment, I knew I had to join the Catholic Church, and RCIA has been a great blessing on my path towards that calling.

TOMMY GUYETT

Hello! I'm Tommy Guyett, 19, from Campton Hills. I joined RCIA initially because I was curious about what it meant to become Christian and join the Church. I stayed because of the welcoming and caring community. The Catholic Church appeals to me as an institution of Christian faith that has endured for two thousand years. I've learned my duties as a Catholic and how to grow in prayer and charity towards others.

JENNIFER DOBINSON

I work for a Catholic-based health organization as an ER Trauma Nurse and also graduated with honors from a Catholic-based University- in Nursing. I am also engaged to a Catholic. Going through the RCIA process has been an eye-opening experience. I am excited about my transition into this faith and upcoming wedding that will be so spiritually beautiful and fulfilling. We want our kids to see what living in faith means and looks like so that they will choose to live that way as well. St Patrick Parish has been so welcoming and inviting that it feels right not just for me but my family as well.

JACKIE GONZALEZ

I come from a protestant background; my grandfather was a pastor. I've always had faith but not a deep understanding. My family has turned to God for comfort and healing during harsh tribulations, but I knew

I needed more. My children are attending RE at St. Pats, so I joined RCIA and immediately knew I belonged here. My family is now more involved in the church and am happy to be growing in the Catholic faith along with them.

AMANDA ADLER

My journey to RCIA began after my fiancé and I got engaged. I decided to get baptized because we wanted our ceremony at St. Pat's Church. I went into it not knowing much about religion, only some things his family has shown me. After going through this program, I feel as though I've learned a lot about our Catholic religion and am closer to God. Thank you to the RCIA team!

Sanctuary Series for Catholics

How can a church become a sanctuary—a place where individuals living with mental health challenges feel safe, supported, and provided with a sense of belonging? The Sanctuary Series for Catholics was created to address this important question. Developed in consultation with mental health professionals, theologians, and people with lived experience, this eight-session series explores key mental health topics and examines meaningful ways to offer companionship, support recovery, and promote wellbeing. The course does not require previous mental health training. It is meant for anyone who would like to learn about the intersection of faith and mental health. If you would like to learn more, please join us for this informative series.
