From the Pastor

MSGR. DAN DEUTSCH

Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter! On behalf of the priests, deacons and staff of St. Patrick, we offer to all of our parish family a joyous day. He is Risen, indeed!

Jesus is Risen. The tomb is empty. Death is destroyed. Sin does not define us. Regardless of where we are in our relationship with Christ or his Church, most of us think in terms of the reality of Christ rising from the dead. Imagine no Resurrection. Now how would that change your worldview? Life would be harder and it would be empty. There would be no long lasting hope. Bad things would be unimaginable worse and unendurable.

Because of Christ's Resurrection we live life with a beautiful perspective. He's alive and he's alive in us. He lives in us so that we can share that life throughout our lives. No matter what, he is the goal. We strive with hope because we know we have a place with him forever.

So even the worst moments are moments where he is with us and working everything to the good. He's the answer. As the world teeters on the brink of disaster, he is the only one who can fix it. The world will be better and more filled with hope to the degree that we begin once again to live as though every moment was diffused with his Resurrected glory. The hope of everlasting life gives joy and meaning to our time on earth and makes it possible for us to see our whole life not as temporary, but as eternal. That changes everything!

Happy Easter!
Msgr.

From the Desk of:

MADDY BARR | DIRECTOR OF COMMUNICATION

Beauty can be portrayed through so many things, from a simple smile, to a wonderful conversation, to our very Lord and God, coming to visit up in the Eucharist each and every week. One of my favorite parts of my job here at the Parish is that I get to help our Parishioners dive deeper into the beauty of our Parish community, through all that is going on at St. Pat's.

Today, I'm so excited to share a bit about our newly updated Bulletin. I truly believe that these updates will help us all dive deeper into the beauty of St. Pat's! Some of these updates include:

- A new list of people to pray for who are sick or have passed away.
- A list of Key Parish Staff Contacts, according to what we think people are often looking for most
- Discipleship Pathway will have a permanent place in the bulletin (see below)
- A new "From the Desk of" section will be where a staff member (or potentially a ministry leader) can share additional insights with the Parish.
- For events, all events will now have a picture, as well as 2-3 hashtags included to help people know where they should get involved. We have also added an extra full page event and a rolling monthly calendar.

I hope to see you around the Parish soon! Happy Easter to you and your family!

God Bless,
Maddy Barr

Joy at St. Pat's

Over the past year, we have had the extreme joy of being able to walk with our Parishioners in so many amazing ways. To share a bit of that joy, we've asked a few of people to share a bit about their experience at the Parish this year.

Tammie MacMullen | Alpha Alpha built my confidence in my faith. It helped me build relationships with others parishioners that I never thought possible. The community aspect was so beautiful and strong.

Mary Kate Naughton | Young Adult Ministry I've been a part of the St. Pat's young adult ministry for a couple years now and I have to say, without reservation, it is the best thing I ever did. I've made what I know will be lifelong friends at a time when I really needed a friend. That, along with the opportunity to deepen my faith at our regular get-togethers has truly been a gift for which I am forever grateful to the St. Pat's community

Gabe Wollak | Youth Ministry The most important thing that youth ministry has done to my faith has been that it has taken my faith and then applied it to my life. It has showed me how to live my faith in every aspect so my life.

Lisa Handbury | Staff I have done accounting for years, but this job has allowed me to bring my love for my work and my faith fully together! I've been going to St. Pat's since 1968! Now, working here, I feel so much joy and a deeper sense of faith! Between working and now being able to volunteer in many ways at the Parish too, I couldn't be happier! I feel I've come full circle!
